

Vaccines in Public Health Workshop Monday, 3 September 2018

Venue: The Children's Hospital at Westmead

Lorimer Dods Lecture theatre, Education Centre, Level 4

9.00	Welcome, overview of workshop and NCIRS
9.30	Epidemiology and burden of vaccine preventable diseases: Global & Australian perspectives
10.15	MORNING TEA
10.30	Basic immunological principles and vaccine characteristics
11.15	The current vaccination schedule
11.45	Vaccination program delivery and evaluation in Australia
12.30	LUNCH
1.10	Adding vaccines to the National Immunisation Program
1.25	Economic assessment
1.55	Case study 1: EIS Texarkana case study
3.15	AFTERNOON TEA
3.30	Maternal vaccination
4.05	Vaccines: Challenges for the future
4.45	Wrap up and Q& A

Vaccines in Public Health Workshop

Tuesday, 4 September 2018

Venue: The Children's Hospital at Westmead

Lorimer Dods Lecture theatre, Education Centre, Level 4

8.45	Recap of Day 1
Case study 2: Introducing a new vaccine into the National Immunisation Program
9.00	Introduction to the case study 2
9.10	Group tutorial & discussions
10.10	Group wrap up of case study
10.30	MORNING TEA
10.45	Immunisation in the developing country context
11.15	Indigenous health perspectives
11.30	Vaccine safety
12.30	LUNCH
1.15	Case Study 3: Rotavirus vaccine safety
3.00	AFTERNOON TEA
3.15	High vaccine coverage? Confidence, communication and controversy
4.00	Hot topics (Question Box)
4.30	Wrap up, assignment preparation and course evaluation